

The Harry S. Rintoul Award

Best New Manitoba Play at the Winnipeg Fringe Festival

2022 Call for Entries

The Harry S. Rintoul Award was established in 2002 in honour of Manitoba playwright and founding Artistic Director of Theatre Projects Manitoba, Harry S. Rintoul.

In order to be eligible for this award:

1. The play must be a script-based piece written by a Manitoba resident, or if a collective the majority of the artists must be Manitoba residents.
2. The play must be an original script. Stand-up, improvisation, and sketch comedy are not eligible. Adaptations are eligible if adapted from another medium (ex. novel, short story, inspired by, etc).
3. It must be a first production. It may have had a public reading/public workshop, but the 2022 Fringe production must be a premiere.
4. Entries must be submitted by 9:00 a.m. on Monday, July 11th, 2022 (opening week of the Fringe).

The Harry S. Rintoul Award winner is decided by a selection committee comprised of theatre professionals. This year, with the support of the Manitoba Arts Council, the winner will receive $750.00 and an honorable mention will receive $250. The awards will be presented on the final evening of the Festival.

To submit your play for consideration, all you need to do is send a request by email to mbplay@mymts.net with the following information:

Subject line: Request to be considered for the Harry S. Rintoul Award

Content of email: Title of play, name of playwright(s), venue, and dates/times of performances.

There is no entry fee. You will receive a reply confirming your entry.
